

1 outside of the clinic on at least five occasions, including meeting with her twice at a
2 restaurant for dinner. The OMB Order also states that Respondent gave Patient A gifts, 3 including a laptop computer, and sent her multiple email messages, some of which 4 contained sexually explicit remarks.

5 6. The OMB Order notes that the emails directly invited Patient A to think about 6 the physician in sexual terms and invited her to engage in a sexual relationship with him.
7 Finally, the OMB Order states that Respondent's explanations for his behavior were not 8 credible and that he exploited a vulnerable patient, took advantage of his power and trust, 9 and subjected Patient A to the risk of harm.

10 7. Respondent contended, and continues to maintain, that he did not author the 11 emails. According to Respondent, they were written by his wife.

12 8. The OMB also found that at Mid-Valley OBGYN, Respondent violated clinic 13 policy on repeated occasions by conducting breast and pelvic exams without a chaperone
14 even after being counseled not to do so. Clinic staff also observed him making derogatory 15 comments about some of his patients and answering personal phone calls on his cell
16 phone while conducting pelvic exams. Respondent disputes these findings.

17 9. On August 18, 2010, Respondent entered into an Interim Cessation of 18 Practice Agreement with the Colorado Board. On August 30, 2010, he underwent a 19 psychosexual evaluation through a referral by the Colorado Physician Health Program
20 (CPHP).

21 10. Respondent entered into an Interim Practice Restriction with the Arizona
22 Medical Board on October 12, 2010.

23 11. Respondent participated in treatment at the Acumen Institute from November 24 10-19, 2010.

6 protect the public and ensure the doctor's ability to safely engage in the practice of 8 5. The Board finds that a practice restriction is needed in order to protect the 9 public.
